

Breaking Point: Vicky Fallon

Vicky Fallon is a wonderful girl who is always at the top of her class. "Vicky, you're one of my best students..." said Mr. Mitchell. (pg. 116)

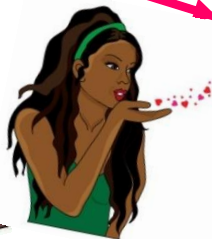

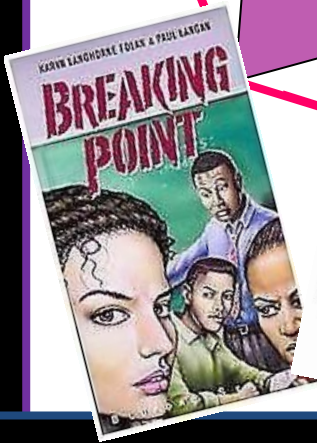

When Vicky lost her house her grandfather gave Vicky's mom money to rent an apartment at hillside manor. When Martin, Mario, and Felix helped Vicky and her family with their things, Vicky felt hope. She saw "Friends. Family. A future." (Pg. 150)

Martin came to Bluford High and Vicky fell for him. This change the Vicky's relationship with Teresa her best friend. "I'm not going to lie and pretend I like him" -said Teresa. "You know something, Teresa? I wouldn't come to your stupid quinceañera..." Vicky growled. (Pg. 43)

Teresa, worried about Vicky's actions, went to Vicky asking her what's wrong. Vicky is not able to take it anymore told her old best friend everything making the two best friends again.

With vicky's problems at home like her parents constantly fighting and her troubled little bother being out of control got worst, vicky neglected her school work. "I don't know... I didn't get a chance to finish," said vicky when Mr. Mitchell asked her a question. (Pg. 111)
