

Carter want to finish his novel.He looked for a quite place to finished his book. The fiance sent him to her friend's apartment to finished it before their wedding, but yet he got more distracted.

Carter was scared to leave Sloan because he finally felt that his love was complete when he lived with her...

Carter went inside Ms. Fairchild house he felt awkward when he saw Sloan,at the same time he felt attracted to her.

While he was dating Sloan, he started to restore his book by utilizing his action in his story. Actually, all of his book that he write before, he only use his imagination. He become one of the character in his novel.

Carter couldn't help himself by seeing Sloan Ferchild around him. Also he couldn't write and sleep. Fnally he then popose her by asking her out for dinner." He had had only a preview of what it would be like to love her, yet he knew that beneath her seranily beat the heart of passionate ,givinglover,generou with her affections."

Carter lived happily ever after.....